

FARRM Photographer Volunteer

Role Description

Recognizing the impact and influence imagery can have on an audience to take action, FARRM photographers are critical to achieving FARRM's goals. You will be a part of an amazing team of humans that assists FARRM with various photography tasks.

Time Commitment

- Various, as requested

Special Notes

- All images become FARRM property and can be used in any capacity.

Role Requirements & Expectations

- Volunteer photographers provide free photography services including but not limited to animal portraits, sanctuary events, community events, marketing products, video projects, and more.
- Volunteer photographers are creative, adaptable and committed, they use their artistic flair to make sure they get the perfect shot.
- Volunteer photographers must have basic photo editing skills and be willing to work with FARRM's feedback regarding editing requests.